Be advised: I just emailed following attachments to Chief of Sacramento Police Department with typos. [Can you manage to refrain from overtechnical scrutiny for prejudicial rationalization selectively and decipher like a real special-agent with at least common-sense (Wilguses)? Oh...typos are committed under extreme time-constraint while suffering heavy sabotage by the malicious interference remote-terminal... Hmm... Hmm... mentioned in previous informations (Wilguses).] Also: attachments corresponded as aforesaid are now again possible after resolving lost capacity. FYI: I have registered new address with Yahoo to circumvent your conspiratorial Misconduct in collusion to sabotage by obstruction with anomalous queues of attachments that were always rejected by collaborating daemon. Thank you very much. Jacob.
